

BERNESE MOUNTAIN DOG CLUB of WATCHUNG, INC.
CODE OF ETHICS

The Bernese Mountain Dog Club of Watchung, in keeping with its aims of breeding the best possible dogs while preserving their beauty and character and of promoting the best possible care and training of these dogs, adopts the following Code:

1. Breeders shall strive for perfection of the Bernese Mountain Dog in accordance with the official Standard set forth by the American Kennel Club. In this regard they shall:
 - A. Maintain high standards of health and care for their dogs.
 - B. Use only physically and mentally sound stock, and will refuse stud service to any bitch that is unregistrable or shows obvious defects. They shall study and learn the good and bad points within their own stock, never doubling up on a known and visible fault.
 - C. Ideally X-ray for evidence of hip dysplasia at age of one year or over, treating mild cases as they would any other fault, and excluding from breeding programs dogs with more severe evidence of hip dysplasia.
 - D. Refrain from breeding the bitch until her second season, preferably waiting until at least 18 mos. of age. A bitch shall be bred no more than two of three seasons, this depending on the size of the litter whelped, and her condition. It is suggested than in most cases a period of one year between litters.
2. Breeders shall not sell stock without true presentation to the purchaser or use misleading or untruthful statements in selling or advertising.
3. No member shall sell adults or puppies to any known retail or wholesale pet outlet.
4. A buyer should be supplied with a 4-generation pedigree, information on inoculations and other veterinary care that the dog has had, and instructions on care, feeding and the training of the Bernese Mountain Dog.
5. A breeder will guarantee the health of his stock subject to a Veterinarian's examination with 48 hours of the sale.
6. A breeder should try to keep in touch with the progress of dogs of his breeding in order to better analyze his own program.
7. Breeders shall exhibit at dog shows and matches where feasible.
8. Members shall at all times exhibit good sportsmanship at all events related to the Club and to dog shows.
9. Members shall not degrade any other member or kennel.
